Scope and Content Notes: There are two types of documents in this collection, bulletins and programs. The bulletins acts a guide for the graduate, informing them of there place in the procession, ticket information, parking and other incidental information they need to know. The programs are handed out at the commencement and contain the names of the graduates and the type of diploma they earned.

One notable addition to the bulletins was in 1972. That year commencement was combined with a presidential inauguration.

Organization of Collection: It is a small collection. The bulletins are in one folder and the programs are filed chronologically.
