Historical Sketch: The LCCC Foundation was founded 1973 as direct support organization for LCCC. In five years the Foundation had assets of $508,000 and in another five years the assets grew to $1,100,000. One of the more popular fund raising events was the Jack Nicklaus Golf Benefit. His participation brought in other top name golfers such as Chi Chi Rodriguez, Lee Trevino and Greg Norman.

The Alumni Association began organizing in 1975 with the first officers elected in 1978. Tom Sarnovsky was its first president.
Bibliographic Information: Thirty Years of Service; The First Three Decades of Ohio's Independently Governed Two-Year Colleges; With Special Emphasis on Lorain County Community College. Max J. Lerner. 1995.

Scope and Content Notes: The collection is quite small, only five folders. The Alumni Newsletters offers the best run of information.

Arrangement of Records: With only five folders no particular scheme is necessary.
