Scope and Content Notes: This collection is primarily made up of handbooks for students, faculty and counseling services. The collection is spotty in that there is no solid run of years for any publication. Despite this there are clearly identifiable series in the Student Handbook, Academic Advising Handbook and Counseling Services.
Additionally there are subject files containing a guide for a two plus two program and a study of freshman.

Arrangement of Records: The collection is divided into four small series; Student Handbooks, Academic Advising Handbook, Counseling Services and Subject Guides. They are arranged chronologically within each series.
